1 NAME

The name of the incorporated association shall be the Queensland Finch Society Inc (in these rules called "The Association").

2 OBJECTS

The objects for which the Association is established are: -

1. The study of Australian and foreign birds particularly Finches.
2. The conservation of birds particularly Finches, at liberty and in captivity including their habitats.
3. The promotion of the hygienic keeping and scientific feeding and breeding of birds in the best and most natural conditions possible.
4. The arrangement of lectures by visiting and local aviculturists and naturalists on matters relating to selection, care and treatment of indigenous and foreign birds particularly Finches.
5. The dissemination of avicultural information, including the publication of a monthly bulletin to be known as "Finch News", which publication shall be sent to all members of the Association.
6. The cultivation of affiliation and friendly relations with societies and clubs having similar objectives in any part of the world.
7. To establish viable breeding populations of all suitable species of birds in captivity, particularly Finches.
8. The pursuit of the establishment of Federal quarantine facilities and subsequent entry of foreign birds into Australia.
9. The free and unhindered exchange of aviary-bred birds between aviculturists throughout Australia.
10. To develop public interest in all forms of bird life particularly Finches.
11. To conduct competitive and no-competitive exhibitions

3 POWERS

The powers of the Association are: -

1. To take over the funds and other assets and the liabilities of the present unincorporated association known as "The Queensland Finch Society".
2. To subscribe to, become a member of and co-operate with any other association, club or organisation, whether incorporated or not, whose objects are altogether or in part similar to those of the Association provided that the Association shall not subscribe to or support with its funds any club, association or organisation which does not prohibit the distribution of its income and property among its members to an extent at least as great as that imposed on the Association under or by virtue of rule 29 (11).
3. In furtherance of the objects of the Association to buy, sell and deal in all kinds of articles, commodities and provisions, both liquid and solid, for the members of the Association or persons frequenting the Association's premises.
4. To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire and otherwise acquire any lands, buildings, easements or property, real and personal, and any rights or privileges which may be requisite for the purposes of, or capable of being conveniently used in connection with, any of the objects of the Association provided that in case the Association shall take or hold any property which may be subject to any trusts, the Association shall only deal with the same manner as is allowed by law having regard to such trusts.

5. To enter into any arrangements with any Government or Authority that are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects and exercise of the powers of the Association; to obtain from any such Government or Authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Association may think it desirable to obtain; and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions.
6. To appoint, employ, remove or suspend such managers, clerks, secretaries, servants, workmen and other persons as may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Association.
7. To remunerate any person or body corporate for services rendered, and whether by way of brokerage or otherwise in placing or assisting to place or guaranteeing the placing of any unsecured notes, debentures or other securities of the incorporated association, or in or about the incorporated association or promotion of the incorporated association or in the furtherance of its objects.
8. To construct, improve, maintain, develop, work, manage, carry out, alter or control any houses, buildings, grounds works or conveniences which seem calculated directly or indirectly to advance the Association's interests, and to contribute to, subsidise or otherwise assist and take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, development, working, management, carry out, alteration or control thereof.
9. To invest and deal with the money of the Association not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be thought fit.
10. To take, or otherwise acquire, and hold shares, debentures or other securities of any company or body corporate.
11. In furtherance of the objects of the Association to lend and advance money or give credit to any person or body corporate, to guarantee and give guarantees or indemnities for the payment of money or the performance of contracts or obligations by any person or body corporate, and otherwise to assist any person or body corporate.
12. To borrow or raise money either alone or jointly with any other person or legal entity in such manner as may be thought proper and whether upon fluctuating advance account or overdraft or otherwise to represent or secure any moneys and further advances borrowed or to be borrowed alone or with others as aforesaid by notes secured or unsecured, debentures or debenture stock perpetual or otherwise, or by mortgage, charge, lien or other security upon the whole or any part of the incorporated association's property or assets present or future and to purchase, redeem or pay-off any such securities.
13. To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading and other negotiable or transferable instruments.
14. In furtherance of the objects of the Association to sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Association.
15. To take or hold mortgages, liens or charges, to secure payment of the purchase price, or any unpaid balance of the purchase price, of any part of the Association's property of whatsoever kind sold by the Association, or any money due to the Association from purchasers and others.
16. To take any gift of property whether subject to any special trust or not, for any one or more of the objects of the Association but subject always to the proviso in sub-rule (4).
17. To take such steps by personal or written appeals, public meetings or otherwise, as may from time to time be deemed expedient for the purpose of procuring contributions to the funds of the Association, in the shape of donations, annual subscriptions or otherwise.
18. To print and publish any newspapers, periodicals, books or leaflets that the Association may think desirable for the promotion of its objects.
19. In furtherance of the objects of the Association to amalgamate with any one or more incorporated associations having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Association and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property among its or their members to an extent at least as great as that imposed upon the Association under or by virtue of rule 29 (11).

20. In furtherance of the objects of the Association to purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the property, assets, liabilities and engagements of any one or more of the incorporated association with which the Association is authorised to amalgamate.
21. In furtherance of the objects of the association to transfer all or any part of the property, assets, liabilities and engagements of the Association to any one or more of the incorporated associations with which the Association is authorised to amalgamate.
22. To make donations for patriotic, charitable or community purposes.
23. To transact any lawful business in aid of the Commonwealth of Australia in the prosecution of any war in which the Commonwealth of Australia is engaged.
24. To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects and the exercise of the powers of the Association.

4 CLASSES OF MEMBERS

1. The membership of the Association shall consist of any of the following classes of members:-
 - Ordinary Members
 - Honorary Life Members.
2. The number of Ordinary Members shall be unlimited.
3. The number of Honorary Life Members shall be limited to one nomination every two (2) years.

5 MEMBERSHIP

1. Every person who at the date of incorporation of the Association was a member of the unincorporated association and who on or before the 1st January, 1987, agrees in writing to become a member of the Association shall be admitted by the Management Committee to the same class of membership of the Association as that member held in the unincorporated Association. Every member of the Association who previously to his agreeing to become a member of the association has paid his subscription due on the 1st January, 1987 as a member of the unincorporated Association, shall not be liable to pay any further sum by way of annual subscription to the Association for the period to 1st January, 1987.
2. The application for ordinary membership shall be made in writing, signed by the applicant and shall be in such form as the Management Committee from time to time prescribes.
3. Membership is for one individual and entitles the member to one vote.

6 QUALIFICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

1. ORDINARY MEMBERS – Membership to the Association shall be open to all and shall be deemed to be a member upon the Secretary receiving an official written request for membership, the payment of the appropriate fee and the acceptance by the members of the Management Committee.
2. HONORARY LIFE MEMBERS -- Honorary Life Membership may be granted in recognition of services to the Association. An Honorary Life Member shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of an Ordinary Member of the Association. A nomination must be submitted in writing to the Secretary by a financial member tabled for discussion at the following Committee Meeting. If the Committee, by a 2/3 majority of those present exercising their right to vote, supports the nomination it shall then be published in the next magazine and be voted upon at the next Annual General Meeting and shall be decided by a 2/3 majority of those members present at that meeting supporting the nomination.

3. DEALERS -- Any person or members of his immediate family or any person residing in the same household who buys and sells birds as his primary source of income shall be deemed a dealer. Dealers may become Ordinary Members of the Association but are not eligible to serve on the Management Committee.

7 MEMBERSHIP FEES

1. The membership fees for each class of membership shall be such sum as the members shall from time to time at any General Meeting so determine.
2. The membership fees for each class of membership shall be payable at such time and in such manner as the Management Committee shall from time to time determine.

8 ADMISSION AND REJECTION OF MEMBERS

1. At the next meeting of the Management Committee after the receipt of any application and the fee applicable for any class of membership, such application shall be considered by the Management Committee, who shall thereupon determine upon the admission or rejection of the applicant.
2. Any applicant who receives a majority of the votes of the Members of the Management Committee present at the meeting at which such application is being considered, shall be accepted as a member to the class of membership applied for.
3. Upon acceptance or rejection of an application for any class of membership the Secretary or Membership Registrar shall forthwith give the applicant notice in writing of such acceptance or rejection.

9 TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

1. A member may resign from the Association at any time by giving notice in writing to the Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect at the time such notice is received by the Secretary, unless a later date is specified in the notice when it shall take effect on that later date.
2. If a member:-
 - fails to comply with any of the provisions of these Rules, or
 - has membership fees in arrears for a period of two (2) months or more, or
 - conducts himself in a manner considered to be injurious or prejudicial to the character or interest of the Association, the Management Committee shall consider whether his membership shall be terminated.
3. The member shall be given a full and fair opportunity of presenting his case to the Management Committee and if the Management Committee, by a two thirds majority of those eligible to vote resolves to terminate his membership it shall instruct the secretary to advise the member in writing accordingly.

10 APPEAL AGAINST REJECTION OR TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

1. A person whose application for membership has been rejected or whose membership has been terminated may within one (1) month of receiving written notification thereof, lodge with the Secretary written notification of his intention to appeal against the decision of the Management Committee.
2. Upon receipt of a notification of intention to appeal against rejection or termination of membership, the Secretary shall convene, within three (3) months of the date of receipt by him of such notice, a General Meeting to determine the appeal. At any such meeting the applicant shall be given the opportunity to fully present his case and the Management Committee or those members thereof who rejected the application for membership or termination of the membership subsequently shall likewise have the opportunity of presenting its or their case. The appeal shall be determined by vote of the members present at such meeting.
3. Where a person, whose application is rejected, does not appeal against the decision of the Management Committee within the time prescribed by these Rules or so appeal but the appeal is unsuccessful, the Secretary shall forthwith refund the amount of any fee paid.

11 REGISTER OF MEMBERS

1. The Management Committee shall cause a Register to be kept in which shall be entered the names and residential addresses of all persons admitted to membership of the Association and the date of their admission.

12 MEMBERSHIP OF MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

1. The Management Committee of the Association shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and up to fifteen other members.
2. At the Annual General Meeting of the Association, all the members of the Management Committee shall retire from office, but shall be eligible upon nomination for re-election, except that if the retiring President has completed three consecutive years in that position, he/she will not be eligible for re-election for that position until the next Annual General Meeting.
3. Should it be necessary for the President to vacate the chair early for any reason, the Vice President will assume the role of President for the remaining duration of the retiring President's term.
 - (a) Should it be necessary for the Vice President to vacate his or her position early for any reason nominations shall be called for the position. This position will be voted upon at the next General Meeting of the Association.
 - (b) Should both the President and Vice President simultaneously vacate their positions, nominations shall be called for both positions and a ballot held at the next General Meeting of the Association.
4. The election of officers and other members of the Management Committee shall take place in the following manner;
 - (a) Any two members of the Association shall be at liberty to nominate any other member to serve as an officer or other member of the Management Committee;
 - (b) The nomination shall be in writing and signed by the member and his proposer and seconder at least seven (7) days before the Annual General Meeting at which the election is to take place;
 - (c) A list of candidates' names in alphabetical order shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the office or usual place of meeting of the Association for at least one (1) hour immediately preceding the Annual General Meeting;
 - (d) Balloting lists shall be prepared (if necessary) containing the names of the candidates in alphabetical order, and each member present at the Annual General Meeting shall be entitled to vote for any number of such candidates not exceeding the number of vacancies;
 - (e) Should, at the commencement of such meeting, there be an insufficient number of candidates nominated, nominations may be taken from the floor of the meeting;
 - (f) All candidates shall be of adult status;
 - (g) Voting for the election of the Management Committee shall be by secret preferential ballot.

7. No member of the Management Committee shall hold more than two (2) positions concurrently and no family shall hold more than three (3) positions concurrently except for the positions of Show Secretary and Chief Show Steward.

Any member of the Management Committee may resign from membership of the Management Committee at any time by giving notice in writing to the Secretary, but such resignation shall take effect at the time as the notice is received by the Secretary unless a later date is specified in the notice when it shall take effect on the later date, or such member may be removed from office at a general meeting of the Association where that member shall be given the opportunity to fully present his case. The question of removal shall be determined by the vote of the members present at such a General Meeting.

14

In the event of a member of the Management Committee absenting himself from three (3) consecutive meetings of the Management Committee he shall automatically cease to be a member of the Management Committee unless he has applied for leave of absence in writing to the Secretary and such leave of absence has been granted by the Management Committee. Any vacancy thus created shall be filled as outlined in Rule 15.

15 VACANCIES ON THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

The Management Committee shall have power at any time to appoint any member of the Association to fill any casual vacancy on the Management Committee until the next general meeting.

The continuing members of the Management Committee may act notwithstanding any casual vacancy in the Management Committee, but if and so long as their number is reduced below the number fixed by or pursuant to these rules as the necessary quorum of the Management Committee, the continuing member or members may act for the purpose of increasing the number of members of the Management Committee to that number or of summoning a general meeting of the Association, but for no other purpose.

16 FUNCTIONS OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

1. Except as otherwise provided by these rules and subject to resolutions of the members of the Association carried at any general meeting the Management Committee:-
 - (a) Shall have control and management of the administration of the affairs, property and funds of the Association; and
 - (b) Shall have authority to interpret the meaning of these rules and any matter relating to the Association on which these rules are silent.
 - (c) To invest in such manner as the members of the association may from time to time determine
2. The Management Committee may exercise all the powers of the Association subject to a 2/3 majority of votes in favour of the resolution being received from a secret ballot of all members:-
 - (a) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the members of the Association may think fit and secure the same or the payment or performance of any debt, liability, contract, guarantee or other engagement incurred or to be entered into by the issue of debentures, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the association's property, both present and future, and to purchase, redeem or pay off any such securities;
 - (b) To borrow money from members at a rate of interest not exceeding interest at the rate for the time being charged by bankers in Brisbane for overdrawn accounts on money lent, whether the term of the loan be short or long, and to mortgage or charge its property or any part thereof and to issue debentures and other securities, whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Association, and to provide and pay off any such securities.

17 MEETINGS OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

1. The Management Committee shall meet at least once every calendar month to exercise its functions.
2. A special meeting of the Management Committee shall be convened by the Secretary on the requisition in writing signed by no less than one-third of the members of the Management Committee, which requisition shall clearly state the reasons why such special meeting is being convened and the nature of the business to be transacted thereat.
3. At every meeting of the Management Committee a simple majority of a number equal to the number of members elected and/or appointed to the Management Committee as at the close of the last general meeting of the members, shall constitute a quorum.
4. Subject as previously provided in this rule, the Management Committee may meet together and regulate its proceedings as it thinks fit; Provided that questions arising at any meeting of the Management Committee shall be decided by a majority of votes and, in the case of equality of votes, the chairman shall have a second or casting vote as well as a deliberative vote.
5. Proxy votes as per sample proxy(Section 25 Point 8) shall specify in writing the issue/s for or against for which the vote is to be used.
6. A member of the Management Committee shall not vote in respect of any contract or proposed contract with the Association in which he is interested, or any matter arising thereout, and if he does so vote his vote shall not be counted.
7. Not less than fourteen days notice shall be given by the Secretary to members of the Management Committee of any special meeting of the Management Committee. Such notice shall clearly state the nature of the business to be discussed thereat.
8. The President shall preside as Chairman at every meeting of the Management Committee, or if there is no President, or if at any meeting he is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Vice-President shall be Chairman or if the Vice-President is not present at the meeting then the members may choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.
9. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the commencement of a Management Committee meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members of the Management Committee, shall lapse. In any case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Management Committee may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall lapse.

1. The Management Committee may delegate any of its powers to a sub-committee consisting of such members of the Association as the Management Committee thinks fit. Any sub-committee so formed shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the Management Committee.
2. A sub-committee may elect a Chairman of its meetings. If no such Chairman is elected, or if at any meeting the Chairman is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present may choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting.

3. A sub-committee may meet and adjourn, as it thinks proper. Questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present and, in case of an equality of votes, the question shall be deemed to be decided in the negative.
4. Any sub-committee so appointed by the Management Committee shall be at all times responsible to the Management Committee and shall submit regular reports as may be decided by the Management Committee.

All acts done by any meeting of the Management Committee or of a sub-committee or by any person acting as a member of the Management Committee shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such member of the Management Committee or person acting as aforesaid, or that the members of the Management Committee or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a member of the Management Committee.

20

A resolution in writing signed by all the members of the Management Committee for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Management Committee shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Management Committee duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more members of the Management Committee.

ANNUAL GENERAL OR GENERAL MEETING

21

A General Meeting shall be held monthly at a time and place appointed by the Management Committee.

22

1. The Annual General Meeting shall be held within six months of the close of the financial year.
2. The business to be transacted at every Annual General Meeting shall be:-
 - (a) To present and adopt the minutes of the previous Annual General Meeting including business therefrom;
 - (b) The receiving of the Management Committee's report and the statement of income and expenditure, assets and liabilities and mortgages, charges and securities affecting the property of the Association for the preceding year;
 - (c) the receiving of the auditor's report upon books and accounts for the preceding financial year;
 - (d) to discuss any items of General Business;
 - (e) the election of members of the Management Committee;
 - (f) the appointment of an auditor; and
 - (g) The appointment of a Patron/s.

23

1. The Secretary shall convene a special General Meeting:-
 - (h) when directed to do so by the Management Committee; or
 - (i) On the requisition in writing signed by no less than one -third of the members presently on the Management Committee or not less than the number of ordinary members of the Association which equals double the number of members presently on the Management Committee plus one. Such requisition shall clearly state the reasons why such special General Meeting is being convened and the nature of the business to be transacted thereat; or
 - (j) On being given a notice in writing of an intention to appeal against the decision of the Management Committee to reject an application for membership or to terminate the membership of any person.

1. At any General Meeting the number of members required to constitute a quorum shall be double the number of members presently on the Management Committee plus one.
2. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. For the purposes of this rule "member" includes a person attending as a proxy or as representing a corporation which is a member.
3. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the commencement of a General Meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members of the Management Committee or the Association, shall lapse. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such other day and place as the Management Committee may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the members present shall be a quorum.
4. The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

Unless otherwise provided by these Rules, at every meeting: -

1. the President shall preside as Chairman, or if there is no President, or if he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act, the Vice-President is not present or is unwilling to act, then the members present shall elect one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting;
2. the Chairman shall maintain order and conduct the meeting in a proper and orderly manner;
3. every question, matter or resolution shall be decided by a majority of votes of the members present;
4. every member present shall be entitled to one vote and in the case of an equality of votes the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote: Provided that no member shall be entitled to vote at any General Meeting if his annual subscription is more than one month in arrears at the date of the meeting;

26 BY-LAWS

The Management Committee may from time to time make, amend or repeal by-laws, not inconsistent with these Rules, for the internal management of the Association and any by-law may be set aside by a General Meeting of the members

27 ALTERATION OF RULES

Subject to the provisions of the Association Incorporation Act 1981 (as amended), rescinded or added to from time to time by a special resolution carried at any General Meeting: Provided that no such amendment, recession or addition shall be valid unless the same shall have been previously submitted to and approved by the UnderSecretary, Department of Justice, Brisbane.

28 COMMON SEAL

The Management Committee shall provide for a Common Seal and for its safe custody. The Common Seal shall only be used by the authority of the Management Committee and every instrument to which the Seal is affixed shall be signed by a Member of the Management Committee and shall be countersigned by the Secretary or by a second member of the Management Committee or by some other person appointed by the Management Committee for the purpose.

29 FUNDS AND ACCOUNTS

1. The funds of the Association shall be banked in the name of the Association in such bank as the Management Committee may from time to time direct.
2. Proper books and accounts shall be kept and maintained either in written or printed form in the English language showing correctly the financial affairs of the Association and the particulars usually shown in books of like nature.
3. All monies shall be banked as soon as practicable after receipt thereof.
4. All amounts of one hundred ($100:00) or over shall be paid by cheque signed by any two of the President, Secretary, Treasurer or other member authorised from time to time by the Management Committee.
5. Cheques shall be crossed "not negotiable" except those in payment of wages, allowances or petty cash recoupment's which may be left open.
6. The Management Committee shall determine the amount of petty cash which shall be kept on the Imprest System.
7. All expenditure shall be approved or ratified at a Management Committee Meeting.
8. An account titled "Finch News publication a/c" shall be maintained in the books of the Association to record expenditure relating to the printing, publishing and distribution of the magazine.
9. As soon as practicable after each financial year the Treasurer shall cause to be prepared a statement containing particulars of:-
 - (k) The income and expenditure for the financial year just ended; and
 - (l) The assets and liabilities and of all mortgages, charges and securities affecting the property of the Association at the close of that year.
10. All such statements shall be examined by the Auditor who shall present his report upon such audit to the Secretary prior to the holding of the Annual General Meeting next following the financial year in respect of which audit was made.

11. The income and property of the Association whensoever derived shall be used and applied solely in promotion of its objects and the exercise of its powers as set out herein and no portion thereof shall be distributed, paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise, by way of profit to or amongst the members of the Association that nothing herein contained shall prevent the payment in good faith of interest to any such member in respect of moneys advanced by him to the Association or otherwise owing by the Association to him or of remuneration to any officers or servants of the Association or to any member of the Association or other person in return for any services actually rendered to the Association provided further that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to prevent the payment or repayment to any member of out of pocket expenses, money lent, reasonable and proper charges for goods hired by the Association or reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let to the Association.

30 DOCUMENTS

The Management Committee shall provide for the safe custody of books, documents, instruments of title and securities of the Association.

31 FINANCIAL YEAR

The financial year of the Association shall close on the 30th, day of June each year.

32 DISTRIBUTION OF SURPLUS ASSETS

If the Association shall be wound up in accordance with the provisions of the Association's Incorporation Act 1981 (as amended), and there remains, after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid or distributed among the members of the Association, but shall be given or transferred to some other institution or institutions having objects similar to the objects of the Association, and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property amongst its or their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Association under or by virtue of Rules 37 (11), such institution or institutions to be determined by the members of the Association.

33 For the purposes of these rules the word "he" shall refer both to the masculine and the feminine gender.
